Message from our Associate Pastor of Music & Ministries

For my family, 2021 was filled with a lot of change. I changed jobs and we moved from the only home our children had ever known to a new city & state. 2021 also surprised my family with another girl (Bailey) to be born in April of 2022. Change can sometimes be scary as we venture into the unknown. We're thankful for all the changes 2021 brought our family, and we are truly grateful to our Lord that He moved us here to Camellia Baptist Church.

I've heard it said that change doesn't always mean progress, but progress always means change. Some of you may have experienced pleasant changes in 2021. Maybe a new job or the birth of a child or grandchild. Some of you may have experienced difficult changes, like the loss of a loved one.

As each day of the calendar passes, change is inevitable. As we enter a new year I pray we would take to heart one of my favorite verses of scripture, Proverbs 3:5-6, "Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths." We may not understand what all God is doing, and that is ok. It is for us to trust Him and trust His promises. He is faithful and He will continue to be faithful in 2022.

For His Glory, Peyton

A word from our Pastor

It absolutely blows my mind that 2022 is already here. At the beginning of 2021, many people hoped that the changing of the calendar would bring a change in circumstances, but it didn't. This last year might not have been as crazy as 2020, but COVID is still here and is still wreaking havoc medically and politically. Political division is just as strong as it was in 2020. This is a reminder that just because the calendar flips to 2022 on January 1st, it does not mean that our problems will go away. In fact, God regularly reminds us that we WILL have problems. In 1 Peter 4:12, Peter tells us not to be surprised when the fiery trial comes upon us as though something strange were happening to us. Jesus told us in John 16:33 that in this world there will be trouble.

I do not say these things to burst your bubble as you look forward to a new year, but I do want us to think biblically about life. A new calendar year does not bring change. It also does not bring hope. It might promise hope, but a new calendar year cannot deliver on that promise as 2021 made clear. As Christians, we derive hope from a much more certain place.

Romans 15:4 says, "For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, that through endurance and through the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope." Then in Romans 15:13 Paul says, "May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope."

God's desire for you is that as we enter into 2022 that you may abound in hope. But we must be certain from where that hope originates. That hope originates from the God of Hope who has given us His Scriptures as anchors for our souls, filling us with endurance, encouragement, joy, and peace in believing. Our hope is not that things will be different. For many of us, we have no control over our circumstances. But our hope is twofold:

God has overcome the trouble through Jesus, and we will not live for eternity with this trouble. This trouble is temporary. Our glory in heaven will be eternal. God has given us His Holy Spirit and His Holy Scriptures, and if we believe His Scriptures and their promises, and we depend on His Holy Spirit to strengthen us to obey those Scriptures, then we can respond to our circumstances with joy and peace.

2022 can be different. 2022 can be marked by endurance, encouragement, joy, and peace. I pray that Camellia will lead the way in shining this light throughout our city.

May God bless you, Bro. James
